Dear Mr. Fletschock,

It is the intention of South Prairie Public School to begin our own football program. To accomplish this, we must first mutually dissolve the coop currently in existence with Bishop Ryan Catholic School. It is my understanding that both schools need to agree to the action.

It is our formal request to dissolve the cooperative agreement with Bishop Ryan Catholic School for the 2016 football season. It is also our intention to schedule a 7th and 8th grade and Junior Varsity schedule. We would be looking to be involved in the next football plan in 2017. Please let me know if you have any further questions concerning this matter.

Respectfully,

Darwin Routledge

NDHSAA Board:

After much discussion with administration from South Prairie School it has been determined that South Prairie and Bishop Ryan Catholic School will end our cooperative agreement in football for all levels of competition beginning with the 2016-2017 school year.

We agree that this is in the very best interest of South Prairie School and its student-athletes as they move forward building programs for their students and their school community.

Please accept this letter on behalf of Bishop Ryan Catholic School in support of the dissolution of this coop.

Respectfully,

Bryan Kramer, AD
