PATRON SPONSORS 2024

The 1973 NDHSAA Class B Boys Basketball State Tournament was played in Minot with a tournament field consisting of eight new region champions who hadn't qualified for the tournament in 1972. Teams making a trip to Minot for state in 1973 were: No. 1-ranked Parshall, Richardton, Hillsboro, Fairmount, Rolette, Michigan, Glenburn and Edgeley.

Hillsboro, a scrappy defensive team with a formidable front court, entered state having lost two games during the regular season – one to Larimore and another to Mayville-Portland. The Burros would avenge the loss to Mayville-Portland by defeating the Patriots in the District 6 championship game, which propelled the team to a Region 2 Championship the following week.

The Burros were hitting their stride just in time for state. Hillsboro played undefeated Richardton in the first quarterfinal matchup of the tournament. The Burros edged the Rebels 52-49 thanks to a late steal and layup by Kent Bruun, who finished with a game high 20 points.

In the semifinals, Hillsboro matched up with Fairmount. The Burros built a 40-31 advantage at halftime and never let the Pheasants get into a rhythm in the second half ultimately winning the game 77-63 and advancing to the program's first ever Class B state championship game.

Top-ranked Parshall awaited the Burros in the title tilt. The Braves were led by All-State standout Randy Hedberg, who would go onto have a Hall of Fame collegiate athletic career at Minot State and later play quarterback in the National Football League.

Hillsboro matched up well with the Braves. The Burros front court dominated as it had all year. Starting forwards Kent Bruun and Roger Bohnsack combined to score 50 points in the title game – Bruun 30 points and Bohnsack 20 points. Center Keith Meyer added 16 points and added all up the front court overwhelmed Parshall as the Burros emerged with a 74-53 win.

Bruun was named Tournament MVP following the game and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Bohnsack.

The state championship was the first of four that Hillsboro would win over the next 10 seasons under longtime head coach Ed Beyer. The origins of the Burros' Class B boys basketball dominance in 1970s and early part of the 1980s took root during the 1973 championship season.

Row 1: Student Managers Brad Johnson, Randy Aasen and Steve Henn
Row 2: Dennis Nelson Asst Coach, Bob Kress, Terry Klemetson, Tom Klemetson, Larry Waters, Kent Bruun, Roger Bohnsack, Keith Meyer, Keith Burck, Tom Olsen, Jim Ludwig, Andy McLean, Rick Blackburn and Coach Ed Beyer

On six different occasions a team won back-to-back state championships in the first 40 years (1933-1973) of the NDHSAA Class B Boys Basketball Tournament. The defending Class B state champions from the 1972-73 season – the Hillsboro Burros – sought to be the seventh time a squad had successfully repeated at the 1974 Class B Boys Basketball State Tournament played at the Bismarck Civic Center, which would be the venue's first time hosting the "B".

Hillsboro punched its ticket to the 1974 "B" State Tournament with a 51-31 win over Mayville-Portland in its region tournament title game. Mayville-Portland had defeated the Burros twice during the 1973-74 season – once in the regular season and once in the district tournament final. Joining the Burros at the Bismarck Civic Center were McClusky, Zeeland, Minto, Richardton, Mohall, Kindred and Max.

The No.1-ranked Burros, coached by Ed Beyer, entered state with a 23-2 record and opened the state tournament with a quarterfinal matchup with a 23-4 Mohall squad. Hillsboro would top the Yellow Jackets 66-46 with four players – Tom Olsen (21 points), Rick Blackburn (13 points), Keith Meyer (12) and Tom Klemetson (11 points) – scoring in double figures.

The Burros would meet Max in the semifinals for an opportunity to advance to the title game for the second year in a row. Hillsboro outscored Max 21-11 in the fourth quarter and dispatched the Cossacks 49-38. The Burros were led by senior Keith Burck, who scored 16 points.

Hillsboro matched up against Minto in the championship game and jumped out to an early 16-9 lead after the first quarter of play. The Burros maintained control throughout and slowed things down to close out the game. Hillsboro only attempted four field goals in the fourth quarter, but were 12 of 16 from the free-throw line to secure a 65-52 victory and a second state title in program history. Blackburn and Meyer each scored 18 points and were joined in double figures by Burck (14 points) and Klemetson (11 points). Burck and Olsen were named to the All-Tournament team following the championship game.

The Burros would finish the 1973-74 season 26-2.
