Code of conduct

PURPOSE: To elevate standards of Good Sportsmanship and to encourage the growth of responsible citizenship among the students, member schools and their personnel.

Fundamentals of Good Sportsmanship

1. Know, appreciate and understand the rules of the contest.
2. Show respect for the officials. Good sportsmanship implies the willingness to accept and abide by the decisions of the officials.
3. Show respect for the opponent at all times. Good Sportsmanship is the Golden Rule in action.
4. Recognize and appreciate the skill of performance regardless of team affiliation.

5. Maintain self control at all times. Good sportsmanship is a responsibility of all who are involved in the game.
6. Show a positive attitude in cheering, refraining from intimidation or negative cheering. Good sportsmanship is cheering your own team "on to victory".

Acts of Misconduct

1. Throwing of any object onto the playing floor or in the stands.
2. Behavior deemed dangerous or which interferes with the rights of others to watch the game.

3. Possessing, consuming or being under the influence of chemicals.
4. Use of obscene, profane or abusive language or gestures, signs, posters or banners which show disrespect for opponent's team, officials, cheerleaders, band or other performing groups.
5. The use of noise makers.
6. Entry onto the playing surface at any time.

THESE ACTS OF MISCONDUCT WILL NOT BE TOLERATED AND WILL RESULT IN AUTOMATIC REMOVAL WITHOUT REFUND OF ADMISSION!

Coach
Andrew Foss

Andrew Foss is in his first year as the head boys' soccer coach at Bismarck High School. A Bismarck native, Foss graduated from Bismarck High School in 2005, where he participated in track, soccer and basketball. Foss was a part of the boys' basketball state championship team in 2005. He played his freshmen year of soccer at Kansas Wesleyan University. He was a starter for the conference regular season and conference tournament champions for KWU in 2005.

Andrew has been an active coach in the Bismarck Public School system for the last three years. He was an assistant for the Century boys' soccer program during the 2012 season, in which they won the state championship. His junior varsity team also won the championship that season. During 2013 Foss coached the Bismarck State College men's soccer program. Last fall Andrew coached a junior varsity team for the Bismarck High boys' soccer program. Last spring was Foss's 3rd year as an assistant coach for the Century girls' soccer program. During his time as an assistant, the Patriots won the state title in 2013 and finished as the state runner up in 2014. Foss has also coached freshmen basketball for the Bismarck High boys' basketball program for the past 2 seasons.

Andrew graduated from the University of North Dakota in December of 2010. At UND, he obtained a bachelor's degree in Marketing with a minor in sports business.

Head Coach
James Moe

James has been the boys head coach for three season, and working with the boys program the past 10 seasons overall. He has his national "E" and "D" license for soccer. He was fortunate enough to be voted the 2013 Boys Soccer Coach of the Year. He was able to help guide his team, along with the rest of the soccer coaching staff, to the 2014 Boys State Soccer Championship.

Outside of soccer, James has taught for the last six years in the West Fargo school district. In June 2015, he accepted the role of Instructional Coach in the West Fargo Public School District, where he works alongside school staff members. He received his Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from Minnesota State University Moorhead. Newest and most exciting news, James was lucky enough to marry his amazing wife Trisha in June of 2015 and the two have started their new lives together residing in Fargo.
