Spiess then transitioned into coaching, leaving a remarkable legacy at both the high school and collegiate levels. His 18-year high school coaching career included head coaching positions at Fargo North (1997-2001) and Fargo Davies (2011-2024), amassing 231 dual wins. His teams qualified for the ND Class 'A' state dual tournament every eligible year (15 times). He also received five NDHSCA East Region Coach of the Year awards.

At MSUM, Spiess served as head assistant coach before becoming head coach from 2003 to 2009. He earned four NSIC Coach of the Year awards, achieving the second-highest winning percentage in program history and leading the team to a national ranking as high as fourth in NCAA Division II. His teams consistently placed in the top 20 at the NCAA Division II national tournament and placed sixth at the 2006 national duals. He coached 16 NCAA Division II All-Americans.

Spiess also contributed to USA Wrestling, coaching numerous Greco-Roman and freestyle All-Americans with the Grizzly Wrestling Club and leading Team North Dakota to high national placements. He founded the MSU Moorhead Dragon Open, co-founded the Rumble on the Red tournament, and organized numerous other events. His contributions were recognized with the 2001 NDUSA Lefty Faris Award, a Fargo North Wrestling Hall of Fame induction in 2003, and 169 academic all-state awards earned by his high school wrestlers.
